

David S. Proudfit, FCSI

*“For your dedication to utilizing CSI principles to create high quality, “user friendly” master specifications coordinating multiple design disciplines; for your unlimited spirit of service to the Cincinnati Chapter, the Great Lakes Region, and the Institute; and for your unselfish sharing of knowledge with students and the design community, you are advanced to Fellowship in the Institute on the 23rd day of April 2004.”
Chicago, Illinois*

DAVID S. PROUDFIT was born in Pittsburgh Pennsylvania. His interest in architecture began when he earned his architecture merit badge as a Boy Scout. He attended Grove City College in Grove City, PA where he received a degree in Psychology and received his Master of Architecture degree from Carnegie-Mellon University in Pittsburgh, PA. Upon graduation, he relocated to Cincinnati, OH with his wife, Linda, where he began his career in Architecture. Serving as a project architect and project manager for many years, David turned his focus to specifications writing, due mainly to his affiliation with CSI. He is currently Director of Specifications for Cole + Russell Architects, Inc, in Cincinnati.

Outside the workplace, David has devoted his time to his church where he has served as chairman of trustees and chairmen of ushers as well as teaching pre-school and serving on the buildings and grounds and building expansion committees. He is also the head chef for the church's annual barbeque.

David joined CSI in 1985 and immediately was put into service as the chapter's Technical Chairman. He served as Chapter President for three years and served on many chapter committees. He is currently the Cincinnati Chapter's newsletter Editor. He has also served numerous region positions for the Great Lakes Region as well as Institute Director and Institute Vice President.
